Investing in our Church,
Faith and Future

"It doesn't matter how much you have. What matters is how much you are willing to give from what you have." 2
Corinthians 8:12

Personal Statements about the MUMC Improvement Capital Campaign

"Relief from our debt, the securing of the foundation of our facilities, along with the growth of our outreach to the community through Sonlight will pave the road for future outreach ministries. We will be able to look beyond current basic needs and financial survival and spend future resources on new and exciting outreach ministry development." Michael Clark

"It is always good fiscal responsibility to reduce or eliminate debt to avoid having to pay interest on loans. Reducing or eliminating this debt will allow more funds to be used for programs inside and outside the church where many more people can be helped. And, having 3 years to spread out my pledge gift will enable me to make my contribution at a comfortable pace." Mark Spooner

"The remodeling is necessary to bring the parsonage to a state where 'we' would consider living there. We should not expect a new minister and his family to live in a 'substandard' setting. By stepping forward with a donation to be paid as soon as possible, we will be able to keep our costs (interest on loans) at a minimum and free up funds for other churches with needs, perhaps even more critical than ours." Jean Storer

"As I consider the Capital Campaign for remodeling and debt reduction, I believe first impressions are important-God wants us to tell the story. It's our responsibility to maintain the property and be fiscally responsible for indebtedness." Herb Ayres

"We have no choice but to make the parsonage liveable for Pastor O'Brien and his family." Joan Buschman

"The capital campaign is important to help sustain the good work of our church's program for families." Rick Gattoni

"Giving to others is an integral part of our faith and of the Methodist tradition. Romans 12:13 tells us 'when God's people are in need, be ready to help them. Always be eager to practice hospitality'." Glen Van Fossen

"Any time people can get behind a purpose, it's an opportunity to grow in relationships, in faith, and in purpose." Shelley Burns

"I believe this campaign will energize us, and demonstrate how very much we can accomplish when we faithfully work together." Connie Pukaite

"I believe we should fix up....right the wrongs with both church and parsonage. The parsonage is about 12 years overdue." Allen Caucutt

"It takes a good deal of faith to approach this campaign, and the fact that we are thinking positively and working together with quite a bit of enthusiasm is a great thing to see." Susan Caucutt
